2019 SUMMER COURSE

July 8th to July 19th / Singapore

FACULTY

Caroline Bérubé

Visiting Lecturer

Caroline is the Managing partner of HJM Asia Law (with offices in China and Singapore). She is admitted to practice in New York and Singapore and holds a BCL (civil law) and a LL.B (common law) from McGill University, Canada.

She studied Chinese law at the National University of Singapore in the mid 90s and was one of the first foreign lawyers to be admitted to practice in Singapore.

Caroline has been working in Asia for more than 21 years with SMEs, MNCs and foreign banks, advising them in the fields of M&A, commercial law and intellectual property. With an extensive presence on the ground in Asia, she is well versed in the opportunities and legal risks associated with most Asian jurisdictions.

Adrian Wong

Visiting Lecturer

Adrian is a Partner in the Singapore office of CMS Cameron McKenna Nabarro Olswang LLP. He is a lawyer specialising in the energy and infrastructure sector. He is qualified in both English and Singapore law.

His previous role as an in-house legal counsel for a multi-national energy company, gives him a particular depth of insight into the energy sector as well as a clear understanding of the business needs of clients. Adrian has had practical experience across Asia, having worked for clients on projects in Singapore, Indonesia, Vietnam, Malaysia, Thailand, Sri Lanka and Mongolia.

Markus Petsche

Visiting Lecturer

Markus holds law degrees from the University of Paris I Panthéon Sorbonne (maîtrise, DEA), New York University School of Law (LL.M.) and the European University Institute (Ph.D.). He is admitted to practice in Paris, France.

In addition to his responsibilities at Sorbonne Assas International Law School Asia, Markus currently holds academic appointments at Taylor's University School of Law, Malaysia, and Singapore Management University School of Law where he teaches international sale of goods, international litigation and arbitration and comparative conflict of laws.

Prior to embarking on an academic career, Markus Petsche was an assistant counsel at the Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce and an associate in the international arbitration department of Gide Loyrette Nouel, Paris.
